An artist, whether in music, painting or literature, is a shop-keeper in disguise. He hides his shop, and pretends it does not exist, but he is essentially a shop-keeper, and none the worse for that trade-alloy.

In like manner the professed shop-keeper has often a touch of the artist in him, which he tries to conceal in his turn.

Today the artist and business-man are like matter and mind. In each there is an alloy of the other.

While most people are inventing reasons for raising prices we have been inventing reasons for reducing them. There is nothing the matter with the white kid gloves that we once sold for $3.25, but which we now present at $2.35. Our reason for reducing them is to entice you into our stores to see our Easter Displays. These gloves are Paris point, overseam, and with two clasps.

Gray or tan mocha, 1-clasp, $3.50, $3.75, $4.00. White washable kid, 2-clasp, pique sewn, $4.75. French suede kid, 8 and 12 button lengths, new French colorings, with Paris point and handsome embroidery backs: from $9.25 to $11.50
